I was born in the small town of St. Francisville Illinois. I have resided in Indiana since 1982, living in Indianapolis for 25 years, and then moved to Seymour Indiana. I was a foster parent for 10 years and was fortunate and blessed enough to adopt two of my children. I strongly believe in the power of God and love seeking God's path for my life. I am married to my wonderful husband, Bob. Together we have three girls and have been blessed with six adorable grandchildren.

I worked for a major insurance company for a total of 40 years and retired in 2017. I have always made up stories for my nieces, nephews, children, and grandchildren. They loved the stories and would often ask me to tell them again and again. Unfortunately, I didn't always remember exactly how I told the story the first time. Eventually, I decided to start writing these stories down. Recently my family and friends encouraged me to try to publish them, so I did. I hope you enjoy the stories as much as I enjoyed writing them.
