

Emily Richelle Vickers - Illustrator

Emily Richelle Vickers involvement with art began at a very young age. She loved to draw and would create new drawings frequently. Creating art, to her, felt like a place she could make any idea concrete and visible. Vickers still feels that way today, and is ecstatic to be given the chance to work with Pen It! Publications, LLC and help breathe life into their publications.

She would like to thank her art teacher Ms. Lane for making all of this possible, in the first place.
