Reader's Newsletter

WELCOME READERS!

Welcome to the first edition of the Pen It! Publications Reader's Newsletter. This monthly newsletter will keep our readers informed of New Releases, Upcoming Events and Featured Authors.

About Pen It! Publications

Pen It! Publications is a traditional publisher. We have been in business since 2010. Owners Debi and Ray Stanton are both published authors who know how hard it can be for authors to get their work out there. That's why we offer a family-like atmosphere. We want our authors to feel at home.

Our reader base is growing daily and it is so important to us that we stay just as connected to our readers as we are to our authors. We welcome feedback and encourage you to leave reviews for Pen It! Books you have read.

We hope you enjoy this newsletter and continue to enjoy reading books published by Pen It! Authors. They so value your opinions and we hope that this newsletter will give you a little more insight into what we do.

God Bless

Pen It! Publications, LLC Referrals

From the Desk of Brenda Cheney,

Happy New Year everyone! I am Brenda Cheney and a newly published author of Pen It! Publications, LLC. My book "God's Favorite Things" was published on December 18, 2019. What an adventure it has been! I found my love for writing in the second grade. I spent more time in the creative corner than I did on my regular work, so it was no surprise when I told one of my past teachers that I was a published author. From second grade through college, I was influenced, encouraged and supported by many teachers. The only problem was I didn't see what they saw. I failed to try because I was afraid of failure. Several years ago, I reconnected with Ms. Tonya Andrews, author and Marketing Director for Pen It! Publications, LLC. I finally shared with her some of my writings and she introduced me to a phenomenal Christian woman, author and publisher, Debi Stanton. I submitted my first children's book, "God's Favorite Things", in July of 2017 and she accepted my submission. Finally, I was to be a published author. I will not lie, this was an arduous process. I knew I was published as I had signed the contract. I knew the Marketing Director personally. However, friends and family would constantly question the validity of my contract. Some came right out and said I was lying. It shouldn't talk this long... among other unsavory comments. Tonya and Debi were so kind and understanding. I was new to the process and they walked me through each step. If you are looking for a publishing company who loves what they do, who are genuinely in it to make your dreams a reality, who believe in honesty, no gimmicks, constructive criticism and celebrate you as a writer, come to Pen It Publications. Because to tell you the truth, you have to surround yourself with likeminded individuals. Who knows the struggles of writing along with the patience in waiting. I had to learn that I'm not the only author waiting to hold the finished product in my hands. Tonya and Debi love to help us and answer questions, and it is done respectfully and professionally. The answers may take longer than we like, but you will always get an answer. Though it was a rough journey, it was worth it! I wouldn't have wanted to do this with any other company. It was all in God's plan and all in His time. Thank you for letting me tell you about this wonderful company and remember you dream of being a writer starts with you believing in yourself. Once you have attained belief in yourself, won't you join Pen It! Publications, LLC. It is a company who believes in their authors and are waiting to make your dream a reality.

Sincerely,

Author Brenda Cheney

BE AN ENCOURAGER

By Tonya Andrews
Marketing Director

There are so many people who have stories on paper, notes, their laptops or even in scribbles on napkins. It takes a lot to even consider putting the scribbles into a story, or written format to be submitted. So many variables play into even submitting a book these days that it could be a very daunting task for many. They have to consider first of all, their thoughts and ideas being put out there.

Second of all, do they even want to submit their writings to be published. Also, what publisher should they even choose? Sometimes, that seems to be the most challenging task in writing a book. It involves trust, patience and doing some research.

This is where you come in as Pen It! Publications, LLC authors and staff. If you know of friends or family members that have scribbles waiting to become books, please take a few moments to encourage them. Sometimes, it just takes that one comment of you can do it, can I help or would you like to share your story to get them motivated.

Whether you are a seasoned author, or you are just starting, you can certainly remember what it was like to put that first book out there for everyone to see. There are so many publishing options these days, and many who do not really know their way around the publishing world.

We honestly feel that Pen It! Publications, LLC is one of the best choices in publishing a book these days. Debi takes the time to help authors through each step and explain anything that they need help with. Our editors and formatters are very detailed. Our illustrators are some of the best in the business turning out some amazing images to go with the stories. We have a phenomenal book cover creator.

Please consider encouraging your friends and family to first of all get their scribbles written. Second of all, let them know that once the words are written, Pen It! Publications, LLC will guide them the rest of the way through the publishing process. If there are questions you cannot answer, please refer them to Debi at penitpublications@yahoo.com or Tonya at tonyaandrews.penitpublications@yahoo.com.

Brenda Cheney

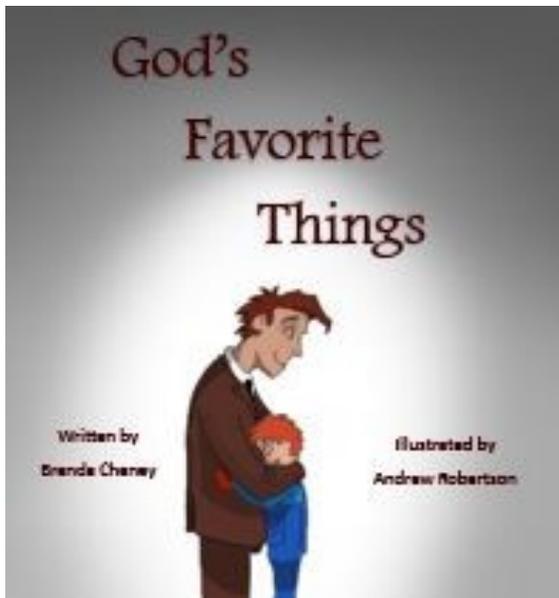

FEATURED AUTHOR

Author Brenda Cheney was born and raised in a small town in Kansas. She is a wife, mother of three and grandmother of two. She loves God and family and spreading His unconditional love. She has been writing since childhood and is thankful for her inspiration and ideas that come from her time and prayers with God.

Brenda has worked very hard on this book, and was very apprehensive about submitting it to be published. It is such an amazing book about the love of God and so easily explained to children in this very contemplative way.

If you know children, or even adults that may be reading it, that need a touch of love from God, this is definitely the book to share with them, or get for them.
